

Children of char

The photo is taken in one of the chars in Kamrup rural in Assam depicts the condition of the children staying in the river island know as chars in local language. The hardship they had to face since birth, the girl child are more vulnerable to atrocities and trafficking.

Life in chars

A skeleton of a dead goat. This photo depicts the hardship of river and the people staying in its bank. as every year lot of their cattle die due to flood.

Old man in char

Jabbar Ali, a 61 years old man returning from his work to his char Major Tup situated in Kamrup rural in Assam. This is his routine since past 21 years.

Fishing In char

A boat waiting for his luck to catch fishes near a char. Most of the char communities are dependent on fishing. Due to climate change they get a less catch nowadays.