

Fishing is a major source of livelihood and income in assam with majority of the fishing happening in the river brahmaputra. Here a fisherman is seen showing off a freshly caught fish which is estimated to be around 4-5 kgs in weight.